CONSPIRARE CHRISTMAS

With Special Guest Singer/Songwriter Matt Alber

December 1-11, 2016

conspirare.org/event/conspirare-christmas-2016/

(Austin, TX) November 3, 2016 – Grammy® award-winning Conspirare delivers world-class vocal artistry in this celebration of love, connection and renewal. Please join us for an evening that will feed your soul and open your heart. Craig Hella Johnson's unique programming breaks down the conventional boundaries of pop, classical, folk and seasonal favorites, revealing the music's essence and embracing our shared humanity. Collaborating on this year's concert is West Coast singer/songwriter Matt Alber. Also with Thomas Burritt, percussion, and Craig Hella Johnson on keyboard.

"... Conspirare Christmas – ideas, a spiritual journey, and music – people coming together to experience the joy of this magical amalgam, perhaps opening up in this time and place to a concept of unity that might well change their lives... and perhaps, for at least a moment, coming away with smiles not only on their faces, but in their hearts." – Paul E. Robinson, La Scena musicale

"[Matt Alber]... Exquisite folk-pop singing anchored in classical discipline." – Stephen Holden, "Singing and Playing, with Emotions in Play: Matt Alber, in Lincoln Center's American Songbook Series," nytimes.com

About Conspirare

"If Conspirare's not the best choir in North America right now, I'd like you to show me a better." – Classical Net

Celebrating their 24th season, Conspirare is a professional choir under the direction of Craig Hella Johnson. Inspired by the power of music to change lives, the Grammy[®]-winning vocal ensemble engages singers from around the world who join forces to deliver extraordinary live musical experiences and recordings. Johnson and Conspirare were awarded the 2014 Best Choral Performance Grammy[®] for *The Sacred Spirit of Russia – one of eleven recordings released on harmonia mundi.
