(Austin, TX) October 27, 2014-- Austin's nationally acclaimed and five-time Grammy-nominated professional vocal ensemble Conspirare, Company of Voices will release its latest holiday CD Unclouded Day on November 20. Unclouded Day is a live recording of Conspirare's beloved holiday concert that seamlessly combines an array of musical genres into one meaningful and magical performance.

Unclouded Day was recorded during last year's Conspirare Christmas performances at the Carillon on Exposition in Austin and features blues and gospel artist Ruthie Foster as guest performer. The recording is a veritable songbook of music that ranges from title track "Unclouded Day" by Josiah K. Alwood to Benjamin Britten, Broadway tunes, the Bee Gees, and more.

“It was a great joy to collaborate with the amazing Ruthie Foster at last year’s Conspirare Christmas, and her contribution to our holiday concert is awe-inspiring. I am thrilled that this special performance is captured in a recording. Unclouded Day perfectly expresses the spirit of the holiday season,” says Conspirare artistic director Craig Hella Johnson.

Conspirare and Waterloo Records will host a CD release party on November 20 from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. The event is free and open to the public and features live entertainment, CD signing, and complimentary beverages from Shiner Beer. Unclouded Day is also available for purchase at conspirare.org.
